Cleo could not get to sleep. She was afraid of monsters and she believed that they could attack her while she was sleeping. Theo had an idea to overcome his sister's fear. He explained to her that all the monsters do not actually exist.

The monsters were invented in different times and places, according to the fears of the people. To prove to his sister that he was right, Theo took the time-space machine and they began a journey to understand how various monsters were invented.

CLEO & THEO

Cleo and Theo are two brothers who have a time-space machine. They can go anywhere and to any time. With this machine, Cleo and Theo discover fascinating things about life and the world around us.

In this book, Cleo and Theo use their time-space machine to meet monsters invented in many different times and places. As Cleo understands that these monsters are just human invention, she loses her fear that took her sleep. Follow Cleo and Theo and learn with them. Good trip!
